BEGIN REJECTS SADAT'S ATTACK

JERUSALEM (WNS) - Premier Menachem Begin has strongly rejected Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's charge that Begin is responsible for the deadlock in autonomy negotiations. Begin said the negotiations could be successfully completed within a matter of hours if Sadat would "stick to the Camp David accords."

In an interview in the August Readers Digest, Sadat said that "more than 90 percent of the Israeli people want peace. But it appears that Mr. Begin cannot bring himself to leave what he calls Judaea and Samaria because ... it is Biblical."

In a statement dictated at his home where he is recovering from a mild heart attack, Begin said that if Sadat wanted an agreement, he could have instructed the Egyptian negotiators not to make proposals on autonomy for the Palestinians on the West Bank and Gaza Strip that contradicted the Camp David agreements and threatened Israel's security. "I, too, could have said 95 percent of the Egyptian people want peace, unlike the Egyptian government," Begin declared.

MANY FEEL REAGAN WILL HELP ISRAEL

DETROIT (WNS) -- Jewish Republicans, who attended the Republican Convention here, appeared pleased with the Republican candidates for President, former California Governor Ronald Reagan; his choice of George Bush as his Vice Presidential running mate, and the GOP platform.

Industrialist Gordon Zacks, of Columbus, Ohio, who served as Bush's national vice chairman of finance, said that "for the sake of the country, the free world, and the State of Israel, Ronald Reagan has selected the most qualified candidate. I commend his judgment. I am confident that the ticket of Reagan and Bush will go on to victory in November."

Los Angeles attorney Albert Spiegel, who, with financier Theodore Cummings, also of Los Angeles, has been among Reagan's chief supporters, said he was pleased with the choice

Appointment With Love: Jewish Style

BY TINA LEVITAN

(ED. NOTE: THE FOLLOWING HUMAN INTEREST STORY WAS WRITTEN BY TINA LEVITAN, A FEATURE WRITER FOR SEVEN ARTS SYNDICATE. THIS GUEST COLUMN RINGS OF O'HENRY, MY DAD'S FAVORITE AUTHOR. SEE IF YOU AGREE.)

Twenty - four minutes after five read the clock over the information booth in Boston's South Station. The tall, light - haired Marine corporal lifted his face which possessed a minimum combination of features which one usually labelled as Jewish, and narrowed his blue eyes to note the exact time. His heart was pounding with a beat that overwhelmed him. In six minutes he would meet the woman who had held such a special place in his life for the past twelve months, the woman he had never seen, yet whose written words had sustained him unflinching.

Corporal Gilbert Simmons remembered one day in particular during the worst of the fighting in the Pacific when his boat had been caught in enemy fire.

In one of his letters he had confessed to her that he often felt fear, and only a few days before this battle, he had received her answer: "Of course you fear . . . all brave men do. The next time you doubt yourself, I want you to hear my voice reciting to you: 'Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou Art with me'." . . . He had remembered, and it had renewed his strength.

Now he was going to hear her real voice. Twenty - six minutes after five.

A girl walked by close to him and Corporal Simmons stared. She was wearing a flower but it was not the little red rose they had agreed upon. Besides, this girl was about 20, and Rachel had written that she was 30. "What
