puffed hard on a cigarette while his eyes searched the crowd. Then his heart leaped out the book toward the woman. Even while he spoke, he felt the keenness of his dissap-pointment.

"I'm Corporal Gilbert Simmons, and you - you are Miss Rachel Reznikoff. I'm so glad you could meet me. May I take you to dinner?"

The woman's face broadened in a wide smile. "I don't know what this is all about, sir," she answered. "That young lady in the yellow suit who just walked by here, she begged me to wear this rose on my coat. And she said that if you asked me to go out with you, I should tell you that she's waiting for you in the Kosher restaurant across the street. She said that this was some kind of a test."

presumably the Republican candidate, Ronald Reagan, will win in California where he is a former Governor. Squadron, president of the American Jewish Congress, said in this century no one has won the Presidency without winning either New York or California.

JEWISH VOTERS COULD DETERMINE ELECTION

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Howard Squadron, chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, predicted that Jews would play a crucial role in determining the outcome of the Presidential election in the United States. He noted that Jews are heavily represented in New York State which President Carter "must win" to gain re-election since
