MUSKIE VOICES CONCERN ABOUT AUTONOMY TALKS

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The controversial "Jerusalem Bill" making united Jerusalem as Israel's capital part of Israel's Basic Law was adopted by the Knesset by a 69 - 15 vote with three abstentions. The law also specifically states that "Jerusalem is the seat of the President of the State, the Knesset, the Government and the Supreme Court." It also assures access to the holy places and declares that they will be protected.

A special clause asserts that the government will "attend to the development and prosperity of Jerusalem and to the well-being of its inhabitants" by providing the city with special funds annually. Another section stipulates that government institutions will give Jerusalem

The Ali Mouth - Will It Be Silenced?

BY DON TELL

When Las Vegas was suffering from the pangs of a deep recession in 1967-68, even the most devoted Vegasites were very concerned about the future of the city. Banks were foreclosing on all kinds of properties; apartments, motels, hotels and homes.

The tourists were not flocking to town. Hotel additions were not completed. Vacancy signs were posted all over the strip and downtown. Business bankruptcies were commonplace. People on the street said the town was overbuilt. The future looked bleak.

But along came the hero of that era, billionaire Howard Hughes. Mr. Hughes had faith in the future of Las Vegas and he put his money up. He bought the Desert Inn, Sands, Frontier, Castaways, Silver Slipper and the incompletable white elephant, the Landmark Hotel.

Thus began the start of corporate ownership in Vegas. Respectability was introduced to the gaming industry. The town was re-born. No vacancy signs began flashing every weekend.
