

MAN OF YEAR

Temple Beth Sholom. He's the man to call for High - Holy day tickets, Hebrew school enrollment, Pre-school and summer camp, dues, membership, etc. His official title is Executive Director. His unofficial title is miracle worker.

Let's look at some of his accomplishments since he began the job 15 years ago. At that time the Temple's membership was a little over 200. Now it stands at 872, which represents a quadrupling since he was appointed to the newly created post of executive director by former Temple president Stan Irwin.

One can recall the building of the beautiful Ruby Kolod Recreation Center, a structure that Leo Wilner built and which remains one of the most attractive sports complex buildings in Las Vegas. Then there was the building of the Dorothy and Jack Entratter Social Hall, the Sanctuary, the Lobby, classrooms and general expansion of the Temple's facilities.

Leo is the man who has worked with many Temple presidents and Boards of Directors. They come and go, yet Leo remains to carry on the burden of the next year.

Total dedication is the name of the game for Leo. Some say he has but two interests in life, "the welfare and well-being of his family and of his Temple." Some wonder which comes first - when he serves as a substitute Rabbi or Cantor whenever necessary or the occasion presents itself.

With special pride, Leo is proud of his lovely wife, Mickey, and his children Bob and Elyse Wilner and grandson Richard of Laguna Hills, Calif. And his other children, Dr. Martin and Linda Wilner and grandchildren, Robert and Karen of Las Vegas. Fifteen years ago, the Israelite said "Long May Leo Last". Today we say we are very proud to name Leo A. Wilner our Man of the Year.

WOMAN OF YEAR

year vice president of Temple Beth Sholom's Torah Fund, a job with long hours, little recognition and lots of dedication.

Margie says that "Seeing Jewish people proud of their fabulous heritage is what keeps me going."

She is an eight-year resident of Las Vegas and in that time she was a charter member or ORT since 1972. Margie has been active in Hadassah since 1972, becoming a board member. She was Sisterhood treasurer for two years in 1975 - 76.

Mrs. Wrobel was recording secretary for Sisterhood during the 1977 - 78 time period while she was chairwoman of Jewish Family Living holding many workshops in 1978.

Currently Margie is chairwoman for Temple Beth Sholom's joint Blood Drive in affiliation with Las Vegas Blood Bank and Griffith Methodist Church.

Her husband, Joe, and she were instrumental in becoming the first prayer couple for the Las Vegas Jewish Marriage Encounter.

Margie was born in Hartford, Conn., lived in Queens, N.Y. and will soon celebrate a 25th wedding anniversary. Margie and Joe have two "great" kids, their daughter, Barbara, 22, who recently was awarded a Masters in Special Education, and a son, Harold, 20 years old, who is a Junior at Yale University studying Pre-Med and Law.

It is with pride that the Las Vegas Israelite names Margie Wrobel, our woman of the year, for 1980.
