

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The Public Committee for Jews in Arab Lands said today that it had received reports of atrocities against Jewish women in Syria. The reports stated that young Jewish women have been separated forcibly from their husbands by Syrian soldiers and then raped. The Public Committee did not divulge where the reports came from nor where the incidents occurred. It did say that according to the reports Jews have become victims in the struggle between the Syrian army and the Moslem Brotherhood.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Military Government prevented an exhibition of political paintings by Palestinian artists which was to take place in Ramallah, some 10 miles north of Jerusalem. The army confiscated five drawings which were to be shown in the exhibition, charging that they constituted incitement against the State. The drawings were entitled "A Wedding in Jail," "The Rejection," and "The Day of the Prisoner." One of the artists said: "We are not inciting against Israel, nor the Israeli people. We are merely expressing our feelings as Palestinians in paint."

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The Department of Commerce has announced that two New York City freight forwarders and a Houston consultant and engineering company, charged with violating the law against compliance with the Arab boycott against Israel, have agreed to pay fines. One firm, Pace Company Consultants and Engineers, Inc. of Houston, Texas, has agreed to pay $5,000 as a civil penalty on a charge of having complied with the request of the government of Kuwait that it have "no dealings whatsoever with Israel." The Milton Snedeker Corporation was fined $1000 for shipping goods from New York to Libya with a statement that "the manufacturer is a U.S. factory and there is no Israeli partnership or the like."

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Funeral services were held here for Dr. Judah Shapiro, a leading Zionist organizer, theoretician and educator. He died Sept. 3 at the age of 68. Shapiro, a life-long Zionist, was president of the National Committee for Labor Israel at the time of his death. He was formerly president of the Labor Zionist Alliance.
