

NCCJ President Has High Holyday Message

NEW YORK -- The President of the National Conference of Christians and Jews called upon the followers of Christianity, Judaism, Islam, and all other faiths to "remember that we all are members of one human family, regardless of beliefs and to help end the senseless destruction of human life, far too often in the name of religion."

Dr. David Hyatt, a Roman Catholic, in a message, marking the celebration of the Jewish High Holy Days, Rosh Hashanah (Sept. 11), the Jewish New Year, culminating in Yom Kippur (Sept. 20), the Day of Atonement, noted that the days are universal reminders of how everyone can rededicate themselves to the spirit of unity and reconciliation, truth and justice.

He said that this solemn period is a good time to "reflect upon man's inhumanity to man."

"Every day we hear of terrorism, starvation and torture," declared Dr. Hyatt. "Wars and threats of war harass people in many parts of the world. Human rights are non-existent in so many nations. There are forces around the world which encourage national animosities, religious hatred and racial confrontations.

"Throughout history mankind has been able to witness the senseless destruction of human life, far too often in the name of religion," he continued. "Let there finally be an end to the wanton taking of human life.

"We pray with the Jewish community at home and throughout the world for fulfillment of all of our hopes for peace and security, good health and happiness."

The text of Dr. Hyatt's statement follows:

Rosh Hashanah (Sept. 11), the new year holiday in the Jewish calendar, and Yom Kippur (Sept. 20), the Day of Atonement, are universal reminders of how all of us can rededicate ourselves to the spirit of unity and reconciliation, truth and justice.

The Jewish High Holy Days are an appropriate time to reflect upon man's inhumanity to man.

Every day we hear of terrorism, starvation and torture. Wars and threats of war harass people in many parts of the world. Human rights are non-existent in so many nations. There are forces around the world which encourage national animosities, religious hatred and racial confrontations.

As our Jewish brothers and sisters celebrate this solemn period of reflection, let not only the followers of three of the world's major faiths, Christianity, Judaism and Islam, but all religious groups, remember that we all are members of one human family, regardless of beliefs.
