give up the oil fields upon which Israel had begun to depend."

The President concluded: "After the first 3 or 4 days at Camp David, Prime Minister Begin and President Sadat rarely met with each other. For the following 9 or 10 days," he said, "all of their discussions were done through me."

"The discussions were complex and there were times when both Sadat and Begin said they would never do this or that because it might have been contrary to a promise each had previously made."

"But in the end, I have never seen any two people more happy than the times when they signed both the Camp David Accords and the Peace Treaty."

"And I still cling to my belief that the citizens of Syria, Jordan, Lebanon and the Palestinians all want peace, and want some of the differences resolved -- just as they were between Egypt and Israel two years ago at Camp David."

BAT, BAR MITZVAHS AT BETH SHOLOM

Lisa Mandel, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Mandel, was called to the Torah and became a Bat Mitzvah during services on Saturday morning, October 4, 1980.

David Schiller, son of Mrs. Louella Schiller and the late Dr. Victor Schiller, was called to the Torah and became a Bar Mitzvah during services at Temple Beth Sholom, on Saturday morning, September 27th, 1980.

Rabbi Kalman Appel, spiritual leader of the Temple, officiated and conducted both services which commenced at 9:30 A.M. Cantor Simon Bergman chanted the liturgy.

After services, the parents of both children hosted the congregation to refreshments.
