UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- Saudi Arabia has endorsed an Arab move to suspend Israel from the General Assembly. Saudi Foreign Minister Saud Al Faisal also called for an all-out "Jihad" by Moslems and Christians to "free Jerusalem from the grip of racist Zionism." Faisal said that Israel should be suspended because it has ignored two Security Council resolutions condemning Israel's decision to make united Jerusalem its capital.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Interior Minister Yosef Burg was scheduled to a meeting in Washington with Egyptian Foreign Minister Kamal Hassan Ali and U.S. special Ambassador Sol Linowitz. Cabinet Secretary Arye Naor stressed that this meeting had been specifically designated by the U.S., the host country, as a resumption of the autonomy talks, not a preparatory meeting for a summit conference between Premier Menachem Begin, President Anwar Sadat and President Carter.

The project, known as "Israel Scene -- Mobile" was conceived by two American immigrants to Israel, Charles Levine 28, of San Antonio, Texas and Bobby Brown, of New York City. It is conceived along the lines of a similar mobile caravan that visited Europe and will visit 36 communities in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- New York State's Office of Health Systems Management and Israel's Ministry of Health have signed an agreement to cooperate to solve common problems of organization, evaluation and control of health systems.
