

JEW'S HAVE "DUTY" TO DEFEND THEMSELVES.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Israeli Cabinet declared Oct. 5 that "It is the right and duty of the Jews to defend themselves, their lives and their honor." The statement was made in the wake of the bomb explosion outside a Paris synagogue in which four persons were killed. "The Government of Israel expresses its horror at the bloody attack on a synagogue in Paris," the statement said. "We participate in the grief of the bereaved families and send get-well wishes to the injured. It should be noted that the terrorist organizations that operate in France and other European countries collaborate with the Arab murder organization calling itself 'P.L.O.' There is no distinction between anti-Israelism or anti-Zionism and anti-Semitism which brought down disaster and shame on all of mankind. The years of the 1930s and 1940s must never return. It is the right and duty of the Jews to defend themselves, their lives and their honor. We are sure that all free men of good-will in France will support them. Every Jew, everywhere -- that gates of Eretz Israel are open to him. There he can live as a free man."
