

GRASS ROOTS REPRESENTATION

"Government of the people, by the people, for the people" is more than a quotation with Al Triner. It is his philosophy of government. He believes District 5 needs representation that is closer to the people. Representation that answers to the real wants of our district.

ACTIVIST IN CIVIC AFFAIRS

Al Triner is a man who gets things done. As Past President of the American Federation of Teachers, he has long been concerned with the quality of teaching in our schools. As a former Deputy Sheriff and through his continuing involvement with the Constables Association, he has been active in law enforcement.

From its inception he was on the planning committee for development of the Senior Citizens Center. And as Vice Chairman of the Senior Citizens Advisory Board he wants to do something about the problems of our seniors.

BROAD RANGE OF EXPERIENCE

Al Triner has been a community leader for 20 years. He knows what the voters want accomplished at the state level. He wants to do something about crime, about traffic congestion, about public transportation, about the quality of our air and water.

Let's put a full-time representative in the Legislature. A man with experience, maturity, concern. A man who can get the job done. A man like Al Triner.

Elect
JANE LODEWYCK
Justice of the Peace
Dept. 4.

It's a Vote for the People, in the People's Court.

Nevada law does not require the Justice of the Peace to be an attorney. Justice Court is a court of REASON AND COMMON SENSE and judicial training is given to each newly elected Justice Court official. Jane Lodewyck has been involved with the court system for thirteen years and is aware of the problems of the working men and women of our community. Jane Lodewyck is an honest and hard-working woman who is compassionate and open-minded. She would be a refreshing choice for a change. Jane Lodewyck is not interested in seeking higher office — she is only interested in seeking justice for Nevadans.

A Non-Attorney,
A Refreshing Choice For A Change.
