HARRIS POLL SHOWS SUPPORT FOR ISRAEL

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Americans favor military, economic and political support for Israel by a greater majority than four years ago, according to a privately commissioned Louis Harris poll just released. The poll - showed that Americans reject the proposition that support for Israel should be reduced to satisfy the demands of the Arab oil - producing states and that they regard the Egyptian-Israeli peace process, with U.S. participation "as beacons of hope in the Middle East."

The poll was conducted last July among a 1506 cross - section of the American adult public and a separate 1030 cross - section of Jewish adults, all of whom were interviewed in person. The survey was undertaken for Edgar Bronfman, chairman of the Seagram Co. Ltd., who is acting chairman of the World Jewish Congress. The 105 - page survey with 46 tables, revealed many ambiguities, with majorities supporting certain proposition but also supporting others than run counter to them.

Premier Menachem Begin remains a controversial figure with certain of his policies criticized. But he is given high marks for his contributions to the peace process and, to some extent, benefits in public opinion from the strong negative attitude toward such other Middle East figures as Iran's Ayatollah Khomeini and Palestine Liberation Organization chief Yasir Arafat. President Sadat of Egypt is the best known and most highly regarded of Arab leaders among all Americans. President Carter is in deep trouble with Americans for his overall performance but is given a slightly better, though still negative rating on the job he has done in handling the Mideast crisis.

RE-ELECT

Assemblyman

FITZPATRICK

District 12 • Republican

Mike (L) and Gov. List discuss upcoming legislation for the 1981 session.

In 1978 Mike promised to better our quality of life by aiding our police. Mike FitzPatrick was the only legislator to step in and help settle the funding dispute between Sheriff McCarthy and the Police Commissioners to provide police protection for our neighborhoods.

While continuing to support tough criminal laws to protect our neighborhoods, Mike FitzPatrick feels that adequate mass transit is a necessity, not a luxury, and strongly supports a drastic overhaul of our mass transit system.
