

BEGIN ACCUSES FRENCH

Christian Bonnet, who said immediately after the bombing that although the attack was on Jews, many non-Jews were injured. A "despicable slip of the tongue," Begin said. He said that Bonnet had spoken of "three innocent gentiles" being killed "as though the Jewish Israeli woman killed was not also an 'innocent victim'."

Begin began his speech with references to Ida Nudel, Yosif Mendelevitch, Anatoly Shcharansky, Vladimir Slepak, Dov Begin and other Prisoners of Zion in the USSR. "We cannot understand the source of the sadism motivating a great power like Soviet Russia to persecute a few dozen Jews this way," he said. He also said the fall off of Jewish emigration from the Soviet Union this year was "very worrying." Begin said he also could not comprehend the Syrian "sadism" toward the 1000 Jewish families confined to ghettos there. He referred to the reported rape of four Jewish girls in Syria and said the Jewish community there lived in "constant fear."

The opposition Labor Party joined the government coalition in approving a resolution decrying the current wave of neo-Naziism and stressing the option of aliya. Labor Party leader Shimon Peres stressed aliya in his speech. "The real answer to anti-Semitism abroad is the Zionist answer, aliya," Peres declared. He said it is time that American Jewry gave Israel "its sons and not only its money."

He warned that soaring intermarriage in the U.S. meant that "a sense of gradual fading away besets American Jewry." Peres also expressed outrage over the hostile atmosphere toward immigrants in Israel. "Did we even dream there would be such a thing as an immigrants' strike in Israel?" he asked, referring to a recent incident.

JAY SARNO RECEIVES ADL AWARD

Jay Sarno, creator, designer and financier of Caesar's Palace and Circus Circus, will be presented with the ADL Society of Fellows Distinguished Humanitarian Award at a luncheon in Las Vegas on Thursday, November 20th, announced Luncheon Chairman Carl Cohen of the MGM Grand Hotel.

Bruce I. Hochman, National Vice-Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, will be the featured speaker.

Sarno, a prominent Las Vegas resident, has been a vigorous supporter of just about every charitable and philanthropic cause in Las Vegas and the State of Nevada.

Jay is well known throughout the state and this community, said Carl Cohen, Las Vegas Society of Fel-

IRAQI DELEGATE BLASTS IRAN

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- Ambassador Yehuda Z. Blum had just finished his sharp rebuttal against the vicious Arab attacks during the general debate here when the Iraqi delegate ascended the rostrum of the Assembly and spoke out bitterly against the Iranian delegate Ardakani who had addressed the session earlier. The Baghdad spokesman Al-Qaysi, worried about the Iranian question, did not have a single harsh word to say about Israel, although he did mention the Jewish State in passing.

Said Al-Qaysi about the Iranian: "It is beneath the dignity of my delegation to descent to the level of foul language which was used by the representative of Iran a few minutes ago. His performance clearly shows a symptom of self-persecution psychosis."
