

REAGAN FEELS IT IMPROPER TO MEET WITH BEGIN

WASH. (WNS) -- President-elect Ronald Reagan believes it would be improper to meet with Israeli Premier Menachem Begin during the latter's 10-day visit to the United States. Begin has already met with President Carter in Washington. Several times during his press conference -- his first since he was elected Nov. 6 -- Reagan pointed out that Carter continues to be the nation's chief executive and that he himself would not want to do anything that would give the impression of intervening in Presidential affairs until his inauguration next January.

He was also asked if he still considered the Palestine Liberation Organization to be a terrorist organization, which he so characterized during his campaign. "Yes," he replied, "I think the PLO has proven it is a terrorist organization. I separate the PLO from the Palestinian refugees. No one elected the PLO." Asked about pur- (Continued on Page 14)
