

GRATIFYING GESTURE

It is gratifying that in these times of strong attacks on Israel and the Jewish people throughout the world a group of Catholic, Evangelical and Protestant church leaders could gather together to call on Christians throughout the world to support Israel and the Jewish people.

This is what happened at the national headquarters of the Anti - Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in New York recently when the clergymen issued a "Statement of Concern" at a Religious Convocation in Support of Israel. Deploring "the actions of those who try to isolate Israel from the family of nations," they called for a just solution for the Palestinian Arabs and the Israelis while denouncing the Palestine Liberation Organization, condemned those who "manipulate" the United Nations "for their anti - Israel campaign" and declared "our support for a united Jerusalem as the capital of Israel."

One of the participants, the Rev. Edward Flannery, advisory committee member of the Secretariat for Catholic - Jewish Relations of the National Council of Catholic Bishops, said that Israel is "a symbol of hope" for both Christians and Jews. "It is paramount in the face of this massive opposition which Israel suffers that those who see clearly rally to Israel's side, fight the forces of anti - Zionism and give assurances to the Jewish people that they are not friendless and will not have to go it alone."

In a practical demonstration of this feeling the Shekinah Singers, a Christian choral group from Janesville, Wisconsin, presented a $500 check to the Israel Consul General in Chicago "as a token of identification and sympathy for Israel." We believe that this type of feeling represents the true beliefs of most American Christians, not the anti - Israel emphasis of some individuals and organizations.

HARRY IS MAGIC AT RIVIERA

The astoundingly clever comedy/magical HARRY ANDERSON, will return to the Riviera's Versailles Room November 13 - 26 to debut with Anne Murray and Larry Gatlin. During the past year, Anderson has come from obscurity to national attention. He has appeared on several national TV shows including "Dinah!", "Merv Griffin," "Mike Douglas," "John Davidson," on which he co-hosted, "Solid Gold" with Dionne Warwick, and "Mind Over Matter" for HBO and "Bare Touch of Magic" for Showtime TV.

Harry describes his act which began as a street con, as "a parody of the standard stand-up magic routine" involving cards, money, ping pong balls plus more. He continually adds more and more comedy and has become less and less reverent. He says, "I take what I once thought to be beautiful, classic illusions and turn them into a shambles." The hilarity of Harry's performance doesn't mask, though, the fact that he remains an exceptionally adept magician.

Harry has won critical acclaim from even the hardest reviewers and that means only that if you go to see Harry Anderson, chances are that you will go away as a lasting fan!
