

Chanukah

BY RABBI SAMUEL SILVER

When Chanukah comes
Don't we all feel?
Fresh admiration
For Maccabean zeal?

When Chanukah comes
More praise is due
To the intrepidity
Of the fighting Jew.

The idea of war
Makes the Jew morose;
But with freedom at stake,
He can be bellicose.

War? No sensitive Jew
Can really enjoy it
But for a good cause
He learned to employ it.

Just eighteen hundred
And ten years ago,
Idolatry was offered
And the Jews said "No!"

Could the rebellion
Really thrive?
On one side, legions;
On the other, five.

But those five brothers
With their father,
The priest,
Inspired others, so Creased.

For three years, they Fought
In field and in cave,
Religious freedom
To mankind they gave.

Fighting Jews
In our time as well

Have performed
miracles;
Witness Israel!

We start with one candle
Till eight are aglow
To symbolize the way
A worthy project can grow.

At first a large force
Faced a littler,
But the good can prevail.
Remember Hitler?

In December Jews
Are enchanted
By Yuletide glitter; Kids wanna be
"Santa-ed."

Monotheism was saved,
Paganism routed;
Many years later
A daughter faith
sprouted.

So instead of Jews'
Going the Yuletide
way
Christians ought to mark

The Jewish holiday.

A holiday provides
An emotional lift,
So light the candles
Give everyone a gift.

Go to schul,
Sing "Maoz Tzur,"
Spin the draydel,
Help the poor.

Joyously celebrate
The Chanukah feast,
And let's all pray for Peace in the Mideast!

WASH. (WNS) -- President Carter and Israeli Premier Menachem Begin praised their ac-chievements in reaching the Camp David agreements as they held a farewell meeting in the White House last month.
After their 45 - minute meeting they urged the

continuation of the process, but neither
mentioned the possibility of a summit conference with Egyptian
President Anwar Sadat
before the inauguration of President - elect Ronald Reagan. However,
Carter in a press conference, Nov. 12, said

CARTER AND BEGIN PRAISE CAMP DAVID ACCORDS

that if autonomy talks possibility -- unlikely prior to the inauguration. I doubt that this fully "there would be a summit would take place would be the case."
