

URGE JEWS TO INVEST IN ISRAEL

NEW YORK (WN) -- American Jews were urged by Israel Agriculture Minister Ariel Sharon to invest in Jewish settlements in Judaea, Samaria, Gaza and Galilee. For Jews to live in those areas "is safer and stronger than any guarantee" he told some 450 people who met here to inaugurate the International Conference for P.E.A.C.E. The name is an acronym for "Preventing the Emergence of Another Arab Country in Eretz Yisrael, Judaea, Samaria and Gaza." Sharon called on American Jewish communities to adopt settlements in those territories, all of which except for the Galilee, lies outside Israel's 1967 borders; to help them establish industries and to "send volunteers, even for a short time. I came here to urge you to act, to do things today, now." Sharon declared that Israel is in danger.

"Israel is the heart of the Jewish people" and it has the responsibility of defending Jews anywhere in the world, Sharon said. "If Israel is harmed, all Jews will be harmed."
