UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- The Soviet Union "is still fanning the flames of anti-Jewish hatred," Israeli Ambassador Yehuda Blum charged in a sharply - worded speech before the General Assembly's Social and Cultural Committee. He charged that the Soviets are encouraging anti - Semitism under the guise of "anti - Zionism." The Israeli envoy also charged that the more than two million Jews in the USSR are being deprived of their culture. Blum also denounced the restriction on Jewish emigration from the Soviet Union and outlined the plight of Jews in Syria and Iran;

PARIS (WNS) -- West European nations reportedly will postpone a new Middle East diplomatic initiative until after President - elect Ronald Reagan takes office Jan. 20. French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing is reportedly the only one of the nine members of the European Economic Community (EEC) still pressing for European action early next year. But the EEC's foreign ministers recommended the continuation of exploratory talks with Israel, the Arab countries and the Palestine Liberation Organization.
