NEW POLICE CHIEF APPOINTED

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Arye Invitzan, a 32-year veteran of the police force, was approved by the Cabinet as the new Inspector General of Police. Interior Minister Yosef Burg named Invitzan as Israel's police chief to replace Herzl Shafir who he fired Dec. 31. The Cabinet vote was unanimous, although Finance Minister Yigal Hurwitz abstained, this was seen as an expression of support for Burg who has come under fire for allegedly having asked Shafir a month earlier to postpone an investigation of possible criminal activity within the Interior Ministry until after the Knesset elections scheduled for November 1981.

Shafir was dismissed after he admitted to a Knesset committee last week that the police had deliberately leaked false information to the press on the bribetaking case against Religious Affairs Minister Aharon Abu-Hatzeira, a member of Burg's National Religious Party (NRP.) Hints of a possible scandal and cover-up within the Interior Ministry came to light after MK Yossi Sarid of the opposition Labor Party, sent a letter to Attorney General Yitzhak Zamir urging him to investigate the matter.

Sarid's letter was based on off-the-record statements made by Shafir to a group of newspaper editors.
