

GERMANS TO SELL ARMS TO ARABS

BONN (WNS) -- The West German government is expected to approve soon the sale of 300 highly-sophisticated Leopard-2 tanks to Saudi Arabia. As part of the efforts to prepare public opinion, Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher said that Saudi Arabia is not to be considered a "region of tension" to which Germany would not sell arms. Chancellor Helmut Schmidt has reportedly negotiated a deal to provide the Saudis with the tanks. Under current regulations, no West German weapons can be exported directly to non-members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) located in so-called

"areas of tension." The government is said to have taken into account a possible worsening of relations with Israel if the tank sales to Saudi Arabia go through. But officials here said Bonn has decided to follow its own national interests on the question.
