The o'le saying goes, "GOOD THINGS COME IN SMALL PACKAGES" could not have been better suited to describe "LITTLE JACKIE HELLER," the 5' 1" ball of dynamite that started his career at a very young age by singing in his father's choir in his hometown of Pittsburgh. Throughout Jackie's career, top stars played their parts in his continuing climb to stardom. Where ever Jackie has been and where ever he may go, he has and will make thousands of friends that admire and respect him as one of the top entertainers of all times, and the guy who was named by The Variety Club as "AMERICA'S NUMBER 1 VARIETY ARTIST," but most im-
