

"BEATLEMANIA" INVADES ALADDIN

The much publicized theatrical wonder that invaded Broadway's sacrilegious custom at the prestigious Winter Garden Theatre and drew controversies from theatre buffs and sell-out crowds night after night, will arrive in Las Vegas at the Aladdin Theatre for the Performing Arts, April 14 - 16.

The phrase "beatlemania" has once again become a household word for many in Chicago, Los Angeles, Cincinnati, New York and Boston where the multimedia extravaganza was brought to life by music masters Steve Leber and David Krebs, managers of the famed Aerosmith, Ted Nugent, Elliott Murphy, Walter Egan, Bobb Womack. Now, Sunrise Ent. Corp. in connection with DiCesare/Engler Prod., Ind. presents the Broadway smash BEATLEMANIA to Las Vegas.

Top journalists and theatre critics from across the country voiced their opinions, experiences and personal interpretations of this new form of theatrical artistry which recreates the historical craze dubbed "beatlemania" that swept America created by four young European musicians. Writer Colette Dowling of Playbill Magazine expressed her interpretations of Beatlemania in her lengthy article tagged, Confessions of a 40-year-old Beatlemania; "Technically, as well as emotionally, it's overwhelming and I wondered who was responsible for this massive effort." Robert Milburn, Los Angeles Times pop critic wrote, "Beatlemania is an idea whose time was overdue." Liverpool Echo pronounced, "... things are a little unreal on Broadway at the moment and it's all due to a show called Beatlemania. The technical wizardry is incredible."

Beatlemania will debut in Las Vegas Tuesday, April 14 at 8 p.m. There will be two shows on Fridays and Saturdays at 7 p.m. and 10 p.m. and one show nightly during the weekdays and Sundays. Monday, April 20 the showroom will be dark. Tickets are now on sale at the Aladdin box office from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and all Wagon Masters clothing stores. Tickets are $15.00 for weekday and Sunday performances and $17.50 for Friday and Saturday shows. All Master Charge and Visa holders can now charge their ticket purchases by calling the Aladdin box office at 736 - 1738.

HAIG WANTS U.S.

WASH. (WNS) -- American military personnel may be required for the international peacekeeping force in the Sinai in support of the Egyptian-Israeli peace treaty, Secretary of State Alexander Haig said. Appearing before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Haig said the U.S. is now consulting with the Egyptian, Israeli and other governments about the force.

Under the Camp David agreements, the U.S. guaranteed that an international military force will be stationed in the Sinai when Israel makes its final withdrawal from the peninsula

JUDGE TAKES CITIZENSHIP AWAY FROM 2 NAZIS

PHILADELPHIA -- (WNS) -- Two Ukrainian-born men who had lied about their participation in Nazi concentration camps during World War II in order to gain entrance into the United States have been stripped of their U.S. citizenship by federal district court judges in two separate cases, one here in Philadelphia and another in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

In Fort Lauderdale, Judge Norman Roettget issued a denaturalization order for Feodor Fedorenko, 73, of Miami, who was accused of concealing his role as a Ukrainian guard in the Treblinka concentration camp. Roettget's ruling reversed his 1978 decision in favor of Federenko following a 7-2 decision by the U.S. Supreme Court on January 21, that the government only had to prove that Fedorenko had lied about his past when he entered the U.S. under the Displaced Persons Act in 1949.

In Philadelphia, U.S. District Court Judge Louise Bechtel ordered the denaturalization of Wolodymir Osidach, a 76-year-old retired Philadelphia slaughterhouse worker. Osidach was tried in a non-jury civil action last fall in which he was accused of concealing his role as an officer in the Ukrainian police force, a force which actively helped the Nazis send Jews to their deaths, in order to enter the country in 1949 and later obtain citizenship.
