This week Secret Witness will pay $1,000 cash reward for information leading to the arrest and indictment of the person or persons who committed Grand Larceny.

On March 6, 1981 at approximately 7:30 A.M. a tractor - trailer rig was stolen from the eastside parking lot at Sam's Town Hotel and Casino, 5111 Boulder Highway. The tractor being a 1962 International, cabover, model Emeryville, being white and red in color and having approximately 3 - inch black stripe going completely around the cab, bearing New Mexico license 81 - PRO4825. The trailer being a 1969 Trail Model 44 foot long, white in color also bearing New Mexico license. The trailer contained 38,760 pounds of meat, the meat being shipped from Swift Meats in Cactus, Texas, and had not been opened from Texas to Sam's Town in Las Vegas. On the same date that this large rig was stolen, it was located by an officer of the Metro Police Department at 12:15 PM in the rear of Montgomery Wards rear parking lot at 2875 East Charleston Blvd. The rear doors of the trailer rig were left opened, the seals were broken off and the 38,760 pounds of meat had been completely removed.

Anyone that may have seen this rig or anyone removing the meat from it is asked to call Secret Witness Hot Line at 386 - 3213.
