

EGYPT WILL NOT BREAK TREATY WITH ISRAEL

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Hosni Mubarak, Egypt's Vice President, said in an interview with Maariv, the Israeli daily, that Egypt will not allow any other Arab country to "impose" war by Egypt on Israel. Mubarak said, "We will not be a tool in the hands of any element which wishes to cause problems with Israel." This was an obvious reference to the promises of aid by Arab countries to Syria in the dispute over Syria's placement of missiles in Lebanon. Israel has threatened to remove the missiles by force if Philip Habib, the special envoy from the United States, fails to resolve the controversy. Mubarak's comments were identical with the content of a message sent over the weekend to Prime Minister Menachem Begin by Egyptian President Anwar Sadat delivered to Begin by Egyptian Ambassador to Israel Sa'ad Mortada. Sadat urged Begin not to use military force against Syria, an action, he said, which might be "a glorious achievement" for Israel in military terms "but in the long term would be worthless." Sadat declared he was giving this advice "as a friend who is concerned with achieving peace between Israel and the Arab nation."

gator told the Board of Deputies of British Jews that he was less worried about the numbers of Nazis in the world than about the lack of anti-Nazis and added that the Jewish people will lose the fight against the "regeneration of Nazism" unless it enlists allies outside the Jewish community.
