DUNES NEW SHOW WILL MAKE OTHERS GREEN WITH ENVY

As we ring out the old, we say good-bye to the famed Frederic Apcar "Casino de Paris" which graced our stage for almost 2 decades and which will close with a final performance on June 16.

We quite grandly ring in the new with an extravaganza direct from Ireland, produced by Irish impresario Joe O'Neill and by American producer Stan Lipton, which offers a "wee bit of everything." In addition to spectacularly costumed dancers and singers, magnificent musicians direct from the Emerald Isle, a bit of the blarney supplied by comedian Tom O'Bell there are the charms of harpist Louise Brosnan.

The shows featured performer is Red Hurley, one of Ireland's top television and recording stars with featured guest songstress Karen Stanton, for a blend of an Irish/American connection.

The spectacular will run indefinitely following its June 17 debut. Showtimes will be at 7:45 p.m. and 11:45 p.m., both cocktails only.
