

SYRIANS ARE NOT REMOVING MISSILES

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Former Foreign Minister and Defense Minister Moshe Dayan became the highest ranking political figure in Israel to assert that Israel does not have an atomic bomb. He was however quick to point out that Israel does have the capabilities to assemble such weapons in a short time and that Israel would do so if its enemies introduced atomic weapons into the region.

Dayan's comments in an interview with Italian State Television, excerpts of which were released before the telecasting of the interview, were reported by the news agencies from Rome. Speculation that Israel does have such atomic weapons have been circulating for years.

Dayan was quoted as saying, "We are able to produce nuclear weapons and if we see an Arab country introduce nuclear weapons into the Middle East, we will not arrive too late with our own." Dayan also said that Israel never thought of resorting to nuclear weapons in past wars with the Arabs, thus implicitly rejecting a rumor that he and then Premier Golda Meir had considered that option during the early days of the Yom Kippur war, when Israel was suddenly attacked on two fronts in a joint assault by Egypt and Syria.

BLUM BLASTS PLO

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- A statement issued here by the President of the Security Council indirectly condemning the Palestine Liberation Organization was seen as "yet another demonstration of the double standards at the United Nations in everything involving the PLO," by Yehuda Blum, Israel's Ambassador to the U.N., in a statement issued here.

Colossal Move

BY RABBI MARC H. TANENBAUM

Suppose a criminal put a gun at your head, threatened to shoot you, and you, in self-defense, destroyed the gun before it could kill you. And suppose a police officer came by and arrested you, the victim, and let the criminal go scot free. Wouldn't you believe that the justice system has gone beserk?

That's how a majority of American Jews, and many other Americans, feel about what just happened at the United Nations, and why they are outraged by our government's joining in condemning Israel, the potential victim of the criminal actions of nuclear warfare planned by Iraq. The UN resolution whitewashed completely Iraq's systematic accumulation of tons of enriched uranium whose only purpose is that of building atomic bombs. It ignored totally the testimony of a former American inspector for the International Atomic Energy Agency who gave evidence before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that Iraq has successfully hidden its plutonium development from the atomic energy inspectors.

The bizarre quality of that UN charade was further underscored by the fact that Iraq appears as an aggrieved innocent while in truth its armies are carrying out violent aggression against Iran. To this day, the UN has not issued a word of condemnation against Iraq's warlike record.

If the UN wakes up one day and finds that the majority of Americans want to have nothing to do with this colossal joke, this latest bigoted action against Israel may well be the straw that broke the camel's back.

URGE REAGAN TO WORK FOR SYRIAN JEWS

WASH. (WNS) -- A letter sent to President Reagan by a bi-partisan group of 142 members of Congress urged the President to work for the release of some 5,000 Jews in Syria. Initiated by Rep. Stephen Solarz (D.N.Y.) the letter noted that the Jews still in Syria are "the remnant of a once flourishing community" and now "face a number of deprivations and handicaps, the most serious of which is the denial of the right to emigrate."

The letter stated that the Syrian governments's refusal to allow Jews to emigrate is "in violation of its obligations as a signatory of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights." Solarz said the only exception to Syria's refusal to allow Jews to emigrate occurred in 1977 when he succeeded in getting permission from Damascus for 15 unmarried Jewish women to come to the U.S. so they could marry Jewish men here.
