

CHARO KUTCHIES AT SAHARA

Only the Sahara Hotel's Congo Showroom offers a dazzling, four - star entertainment lineup with 8 p.m. dinner shows featuring Charo, with her International Revue, and multi-talented singer Jack Jones, and 12 midnight cocktail shows starring the hilarious Flip Wilson and American television's most popular band leader and trumpet player, Doc Severinsen.

Sexy, bombshell Charo is back for the first time since her big "blessed event," the birth of her son, and she's hotter than ever. Along with her musicians and dancers, she's a non-stop dynamo in a fast-paced show in which the fun never stops.

Handsome and sexy Jack Jones, the romantic voice of television's "Love Boat" theme and now the star of his own smash hit, syndicated television show, "The Palace," astounds audiences with his incredible singing voice. His stage presence and voice range sets the Congo Showroom aglow.

Flip Wilson is actually two shows in one as he starts off with his unique brand of standup comedy and then brings out his outrageous alter - ego, Geraldine Jones. Geraldine has a very straight - forward outlook on life that is both hard - hitting and outspoken, to say nothing of raunchy.

Doc Severinsen, best known as Johnny Carson's Tonight Show orchestra and Carson sidekick, is without a doubt, one of the most talented and versatile musicians and performers in the world today. His Congo Showroom act brings out the depth and warmth of the man behind the TV legend.

Only the Sahara offers so much entertainment with a real four - star lineup of truly "four star" performances twice nightly. Call 735-4242 for reservations and enjoy both of these great shows.

July 4, 1981

BY RABBI MARC H. TANENBAUM

"Proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." That Biblical verse that our nation's Founding Fathers engraved on the Liberty Bell was probably one of the most frequently quoted phrases during the festive observances marking our country's birthday. And it is right that it should be so for the American Struggle for independence simply cannot be understood apart from its rootedness in the Biblical and Hebrew values of liberty and human dignity.

The Declaration of Independence, adopted on July 4, 1776, refers four times to a divine source as the foundation for the nation's birth. All human beings are "endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights," which can be neither given nor taken away by any other power. Inspired by the Prophets of Israel who were the first to stand against despotic monarchs in the ancient world, the Founding Fathers of the Republic believed and demonstrated that a free people must be prepared to risk their lives and substance to defend their rights.

In recent months we experienced the cruel oppression of liberty by the Soviet regime in Afghanistan, the callousness to human dignity and freedom suffered by American hostages at the hands of Muslim fanaticism in Iran, the threats to human rights in Poland, Lebanon, and Latin America.

It is some 200 years later, and the Liberty Bell reminds us that in a world of widening political oppression, the struggle to make freedom prevail is still very much before us, and calls for resolute determination of all Americans to face that high task in the 1980s.
