

25,000 MARCH IN LONDON

LONDON (WNS) -- More than 25,000 people gathered here in Trafalgar Square to condemn the pro-Arab policy of Britain and the European Economic Community (EEC) initiative seeking to involve the Palestine

Liberation Organization in a Middle East settlement. People came from all over Britain to hear politicians, spiritual leaders and show business personalities reject the EEC plans for PLO participa-

THERE IS ANTI-SEMITISM IN ARGENTINA

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Observing that while "there may be a valid discussion as to the best method of combating anti-Semitism, there cannot however be a minimization of the existence of anti-Semitism in Argentina," the World Council of Synagogues adopted a resolution affirming reports of serious anti-Semitism in that country. The resolution was adopted at the annual board meeting of the international organization of Conservative synagogues, it was reported here June 28.

The resolution expressed "great concern that the fundamental problem relating to the Jews in Argentina are being obscured by the debate over a single individual who, in contravention of any standard of human rights was subjected to great torture." The reference was apparently to Jacobo Timerman, former editor and publisher of the Argentina daily, "La Opinion" whose book, "Prisoner Without a Name, Cell Without a Number," describes the torture and indignities he experienced during his 30 months of incarceration in Argentina without trial or charges being brought against him.

tion. The theme of the rally was, "No to the PLO."

Most speakers directed their remarks at Foreign Secretary Lord Carrington, who became president of the EEC Council of Ministers and who has said he would be ready to meet PLO leader Yasser Arafat before the end of the year. Peter Shore, who until recently was Labor's foreign affairs spokesman, said Carrington should not be foolish to believe that anyone regarded Britain or the EEC as an impartial mediator in the Middle East.

He added that Carrington should support the Camp David agreement. Shore also chastized the EEC for its continued supply of arms to the Middle East.

Other speakers continued with the same theme, condemning the EEC's Venice declaration of June 1980. Sir Immanuel Jakobovits, the Chief Rabbi of Britain declared, "Any recognition of the PLO or negotiations with it are a betrayal of civilization."

Other speakers included Sir Hugh Fraser, MP, chairman of the Conservative Friends of Israel; actor Chaim Topol, the only Israeli speaker; 94-year-old Lord Shinwell and Greville Janner MP, president of the Board of Deputies. The hour long rally concluded with a tape recording of Lord Carrington saying that the PLO was not a terrorist body followed by Arafat saying: "The destruction of Israel is the goal of our struggle."

TWO SOLDIERS KILLED BY PLO

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Two Fijian soldiers attached to the United Nations Interim Forces in Lebanon (UNIFIL) were shot and killed by Palestinian terrorists and a third man wounded it was announced. A UNIFIL spokesman said UNIFIL has lodged a strong protest with the Palestine Liberation Organization. The victims were among nine Fijian soldiers captured by the PLO in a clash near Kana village in south Lebanon after the soldiers stopped a Palestinian at a roadblock.

They were shot in the back while trying to escape. The wounded man was later released, UNIFIL said, and three others managed to escape. In Washington, the State Department condemned the killings as "senseless violence."
