MONDALE ATTACKS U.S. POLICIES

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Former Vice President Walter Mondale sharply attacked the Reagan Administration's freeze on the delivery of four F-16 jet fighters it was reported here. Mondale declared to reporters here, "I am opposed to and always have been to withholding essential security assistance to Israel to try to achieve other political purposes. Mondale is here to analyze election results for American television and to receive an honorary doctorate from Hebrew University. He said that our two nations ought to respect each other. If we do have differences -- as we will from time to time -- we ought to go at it as equals, otherwise the U.S. would undermine the basis of trust. Meanwhile in Washington, the Reagan Administration expects its "review" of whether Israel violated its arms agreement with the U.S. when it used American made aircraft to attack the Iraqi reactor. This would imply that the future shipments of F-16 fighters to Israel depends on its lifting of the suspension of delivery of the four F-16's. Both the White House and the State Department issued statements that said the review is still going on but "it expects it to be completed before any decision is required on future shipments of F-16's. This means July 17 when six more F-16's are scheduled to be sent to Israel.
