

PLO TERRORISTS ATTACK BUS

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The condition of Dvora Arent, a 23-year-old seven-month pregnant woman who was shot during a terrorist attack by the Palestine Liberation Organization on a bus outside of Jerusalem, was reported in critical condition. She was operated on twice for stomach wounds and was under constant medical supervision.

Police continued the search for the two men believed to have carried out the attack which injured three other persons. They suffered minor wounds. The bus was travelling from Jerusalem to Ma'aleh Ha-hamisha. Uri Porat, spokesman to Premier Menachem Begin said Israel would respond "when and how we choose" to this latest PLO outrage. Meanwhile in Washington, State Department spokesman Dean Fischer said, "We deeply deplore this act of violence." He called on all parties in the area to exercise moderation. Fischer noted that the Israeli government did not consider the attack a violation of the cease-fire.

HYATT TRAGEDY AFFECTS JEWISH CITIZENS

KANSAS CITY (WNS) -- The Jewish community of Greater Kansas City was severely hurt in the tragedy which encompassed the entire community last month when two skywalks in the year-old Hyatt Regency Hotel collapsed and resulted in the death of 113 persons and injury to almost 200 others.

There are three known dead in the Jewish community and many injured, including the executive director of the Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City, Sol Koenigsberg, 56, and his wife, Rosette Koenigsberg, 52, were hospitalized with back and other injuries. They are listed in "satisfactory condition." Funeral services were held for Robert Jonas, 56, a religious school teacher at Temple B'nai Jehudah and father of two; Stephen Hershman, 59, a father of two children; and Paul Winett, 38, a father of three.

Mayor Richard Berkley, an active member of the Jewish community, directed rescue efforts, comforting the injured and the bereaved, and called for a thorough investigation of the cause of the sudden tragedy.

Another member of the Jewish community receiving widespread if undesired publicity has been Steve Miller, who was conducting the orchestra which made the Friday afternoon and evening tea dances a big success at the new hotel. Miller himself was not injured, but narrowly missed being struck by the falling skywalk, which injured one member of his orchestra.
