

LAS VEGANS JOIN HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

A PLEASED GOVERNOR LIST ACCEPTS THE POSITION OF HONORARY CHAIRMAN REPRESENTING NEVADANS FOR SHAARE ZEDEK MEDICAL CENTER OF JERUSALEM. PICTURED WITH LIST ARE NINA SCHWARTZ AND HER HUSBAND, LAS VEGAS CHAIRMAN MILTON SCHWARTZ AND THE GOVERNORS WIFE, CATHY, (FAR RIGHT).

While Jerusalem may seem quite far away from Las Vegas, a group of philanthropic southern Nevadans have decided to join forces with other Americans in support of Israel's pioneering hospital.

Shaare Zedek Medical Center of Jerusalem has earned world-wide respect for its efforts in emergency medicine. The desert hospital has not only developed methods of handling both natural and man-made disasters, but has come to the direct aid of other countries in time of need, and served as an international resource for World Congress meetings as well as for the United Nations.

Dr. Jacob Adler, Director of Shaare Zedek's Emergency Department was recently in Las Vegas enroute to an International Congress in Pittsburgh. The purpose of his work, ultimately, is "to prevent or minimize disasters." He strongly stresses a pro-life attitude.

The newly formed Las Vegas Chapter of the American Committee For Shaare Zedek is headed by Milton Schwartz, Chairman. Schwartz is Administrator of Valley Hospital here in Las Vegas. He's keenly aware of the need for effective emergency measures in medicine.

Gov. List was asked to represent Nevada on behalf of Las Vegas new organization.

ISRAEL DID NOT CONTACT PLO

WASH. (WNS) -- Both Ephraim Evron, Israeli envoy to Washington and Yasir Arafat, leader of the Palestine Liberation Organization denied strongly in nationally televised interviews that the cease-fire agreed to meant that Israel and the PLO had negotiated with or recognized each other. Evron appeared on CBS-TV's "Face the Nation" program while Arafat appeared live from Beirut on ABC-TV's "Issues and Answers" program.

Evron said that Israel agreed to the "cessation of hostilities" after special U.S. envoy Philip Habib assured Israel that there would be "no acts of violence against Israel across the border" from Lebanon. He noted that Israel has always held the government of Lebanon responsible for actions that originate from its territory including the present cease-fire. "We hold them responsible for events in Lebanon," the envoy said. "We do not negotiate with the PLO."

Evron said the cease-fire will hold as long as the PLO does not resume shelling of northern Israel. He noted that it was the Arab countries that permitted the PLO to operate from Lebanon. "We certainly cannot accept a situation when an independent group can operate without any restrictions against us with the object of killing us, murdering Israelis," he said. Meanwhile, Arafat said that the PLO accepted the cease-fire in response to requests from the United Nations Secretary General Kurt Waldheim and the Security Council. He said there were no negotiations with the U.S. But Arafat said that the PLO has "the right to organize ourselves" although he denied that additional weapons and ammunition are being sent to the terrorist forces in south Lebanon.
