

RICH IS BACK AT MGM

LITTLE LADY -- RICH LITTLE IS BACK IN THE CELEBRITY ROOM OF THE MGM GRAND HOTEL WITH ALL 200 OF HIS FAMOUS VOICES PLUS THOSE OF CO-STAR DEBBIE REYNOLDS, WHO IS MAKING HER DEBUT "GRANDSTAND." THEY SHARE THE STAGE TWICE A NIGHT THROUGH SEPTEMBER 2.

The MGM Grand Hotel has long boasted an entertainment lineup that includes more stars than there are in heaven. With the return of Rich Little and the debut of Debbie Reynolds, half the galaxy will be in the Celebrity Showroom at the same time.

Little, the man of a thousand voices, brings in an array of over 200 different voices which include virtually every president since Franklin Roosevelt; dozens of other politicians; movie and TV stars like Clark Gable, John Wayne, Jimmy Cagney and Johnny Carson; and singing greats like Perry Como, Bing Crosby, Neil Diamond, Engelbert Humperdinck and Frank Sinatra.

He has long been a favorite of Celebrity Room audiences and tapes his television specials for Home Box Office at the Grand.

Ms. Reynolds does not come into the room alone either, bringing with her the voices of stars like Marlene Dietrich, the Gabor Sisters, and Marilyn Monroe and a host of First Ladies.

Her stage and screen credits are endless, including

"Tammy," "The Tender Trap," "Divorce, American Style" and "Singin' In The Rain."

She also holds two Gold records for "Tammy" and "Aha Daba Honeymoon."

Rich Little and Debbie Reynolds share the Celebrity Room stage through Sept. 2 to be followed by Crystal Gayle and David Copperfield.

SHOLOM'S RELIGIOUS SCHOOL SETS REGISTRATION

Irene Fisher, Chairperson of the Board of Education Committee of Temple Beth Sholom, 1600 E. Oakey Blvd., announced that the Temple's Nate Mack Religious School is now accepting registration of students in all departments of the Hebrew School and Sunday School.

The school offers classes from Kindergarten through High School grades, and also features a Pre-Confirmation and Confirmation level.

Cantor Simon Bergman, recently appointed Principal of the school, invites interested parents to contact him or the School Office, at 384-5070 for details and information.

TISHA B'AV MARRED BY INCIDENTS

JERUSALEM (WNS)

-- Two incidents marred the Tisha B'Av fast in Jerusalem this year; the annual effort -- foiled by police -- by young ultra-nationalists to pray on the Temple Mount, and the daubing -- apparently by ultra-Orthodox youth -- of the Graves of Theodore Herzl and former President Yitzhak Ben-Zvi, it was reported here.

The daubings, in black and red paint all referred to the controversial archeological digs at the City of David and called on Prof. Yigal Shiloh, leader of the dig to cease his operations.

Orthodox spokesmen in the MEA Shearim quarter condemned the daubings and insisted that they and their people had had nothing to do with them.

In the effort to pray on the Temple Mount, police arrested several of the would be prayers. Other than that, Tisha B'Av passed quietly in fairly cool temperatures. A congregation of many thousands attended lamentations at the Western Wall Aug. 8 and thousands more visited the Tomb of Rachel in Bethlehem and the Cave of Machpela in Hebron.
