

WHY SAUDIS WANT AWACS!

WASH. (WNS) -- Saudi Arabia has started a propaganda push to seek support for its requested AWACS reconnaissance planes that have been proposed for sale by the Reagan Administration according to a report here. A 16-page publication which urges support for the planes for the Saudis on the grounds that Israel might bomb Saudi oil fields to demonstrate its independence of the United States has been distributed to capital opinion makers by a Washington lawyer who is counsel to the Saudi Embassy. The pamphlet, "Why Saudi Arabia needs AWACS" is printed on glossy paper, contains color photographs and maps and was distributed to members of Congress by Frederick Dutton, who served President Kennedy as a White House aid. His office has distributed 7,500 copies of the pamphlet. Dutton is registered as a Saudi agent in the United States. The pamphlet cited Israel's June 7 bombing of Iraq's nuclear facility in Baghdad, and noted that an Israeli air strike at Saudi oilfields would not involve a much longer flight. The pamphlet disputed statements by Israeli officials that the AWACS could be used to scan or photograph Israel's defenses on behalf of such Arab enemies as Iraq. The pamphlet contended that the AWACS radar equipment could not take photos, see tanks or other ground targets, detect low flying planes beyond 200 miles or collect electronic data. The pamphlet said the AWACS only function would be to detect air or naval attacks on Saudi Arabian oil installations in time for Saudi planes to provide effective defense.

"In most instances, employees are afraid of outgrowing the organization; for me, the apprehension lies in trying to keep up with the dynamics of Valley Hospital Medical Center."
