

TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM

HIGH HOLIDAY SERVICES

A capacity crowd of 1,200 people will attend High Holiday Services at Temple Beth Sholom and join their Jewish brethren throughout the free world to celebrate Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year, beginning at sundown on Monday, Sept. 28, 1981. According to the Hebrew calendar, this begins the year 5742.

Herb Kaufman, President of Temple Beth Sholom, stated that Rosh Hashana Services will be conducted at the Temple at 8:00 P.M. on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Sept. 28th and 29th, and at 8:30 A.M. on Tuesday & Wednesday morning, Sept. 29th & 30th. Tuesday evening services are designated as "Youth Family Night" and feature the participation of Temple Youth. The Kol Nidre Services, signalling the beginning of Yom Kippur, the Jewish Day of Atonement, will be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 7th at 6:00 P.M. Yom Kippur Day Services, on Thursday, Oct. 8th will begin at 9:00 A.M. and end at dark. All Services will be conducted and officiated by Rabbi Kalman Appel, Spiritual Leader of the Temple, who will also deliver the special Holiday Sermons. Cantor Simon Bergman will chant the Liturgy, assisted by the Temple High Holiday Choir, conducted by Dr. Barry Fisher. Jack Quinn will be at the organ. The period of ten days, from the first day of Rosh Hashana until the end of Yom Kippur, is known as the Ten Days of Repentance. These days of meditation are designed for man to prove his worth. During this period the tradition speaks of man's deeds of the past year being reviewed by God. The shofar (ram's horn) which is blown during the Rosh Hashana Service is sounded again at the end of Yom Kippur, marking the end of this Holy Season.

PLO HELD RESPONSIBLE

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir said that Israel held the PLO responsible for the terrorist attack on a synagogue in Vienna which resulted in the death of two Jews and the wounding of another 18. He characterized the attack in Vienna as being "like an attack on the State of Israel." Shamir, appearing in a television interview said that Israel does not distinguish between various factions of the PLO because they "all seek to murder Am Yisrael (the people of Israel) and Medinat Yisrael (the State of Israel) by killing Jews."

He was apparently referring to reports from Vienna which said that the two terrorists said they had acted on behalf of the PLO and one said he was a member of Al Asifa, an extremist splinter terrorist group led by Abu Nidal which claimed last May to have killed Heinz Nittel, president of the Austrian - Israeli Friendship Society, which also later threatened the life of Chancellor Bruno Kreisky.

Shamir said that Israel had repeatedly warned Austria "of the likely disastrous results of its easy going attitude toward the PLO activities. He said the "supportive attitude" which the PLO received from Austrian officialdom "doubtlessly encouraged them to conduct terrorist attacks on Austrian soil." Kreisky was the first western leader to have officially received PLO chief Yasir Arafat.

Kreisky, however, refused to condemn the PLO and said he saw no reason for a change in policy toward the PLO. He maintained that the PLO was not responsible for the attack on the synagogue and attributed the act to extremist groups seeking to discredit the PLO and impeding their participation in future Mideast peace talks. Kreisky declared that Israel's "intransigent" policy toward the Palestinians was responsible for acts of terrorism.
