

VIENNESE JEWS PLAN TOUGH LAWS

VIENNA (WNS) -- Edmund Preiss, vice president of the Vienna Jewish Community Council charged Chancellor Bruno Kreisky with pursuing a one-sided policy regarding the Middle East situation and that this policy was creating a favorable climate in this country for terrorists to attack Jews and non-Jews who are friends of Israel, it was reported here. Preiss also called for stricter measures to detect and apprehend terrorists.

Preiss emphasized that this criticism of the Chancellor does not therefore necessarily mean that Austrian Jews automatically support any kind of Israeli foreign policy. "As people that has suffered we can understand someone who wants his independence," Preiss said. He was apparently referring to the Palestinian campaign for 'self -- determination.' Preiss also called for increased surveillance of 'potential attackers, the Arabs living in Austria." He said surveillance had been "gravely neglected."

Meanwhile, Interior Minister Erwin Lanc said that in the near future all 4,000 Arabs have to report to their local police stations where their work permits and immigration papers will be checked. At the same time, police said that there were no new developments in their investigation of the terrorist attack Aug. 29 on the synagogue here where two people were killed and 18 wounded.

There were, however, additional anti-Semitic incidents since the attack on the Synagogue. Following the burial of one of the victims, Ulrike Kohut, hundreds of small sheets of paper with swastikas printed on them were found in the alley leading to Vienna's central Jewish cemetery.

SECURITY IS TIGHTENED IN W. GERMANY

BONN (WNS) -- Reports that a German neo-Nazi who was trained in Palestine Liberation Organization camps in Lebanon is suspected of complicity in the murder last May of Vienna city councilman Heinz Nittel, president of the Austrian-Israel Friendship Society, has resulted in tightening of security around Jewish institutions in this country, according to a report here.

A security official said that a full scale investigation is going on to determine whether there is any possible plot against Jewish personalities or friends of Israel in West Germany. The official said that about 10 neo-Nazis who were trained in PLO camps are known to be presently in Germany. He could not say how many other German neo-Nazi are still training in Lebanon.
