UNESCO APPROVES JORDAN'S RIGHT

PARIS (WNS) -- Jordan has won approval of its request to place East Jerusalem on the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization's (UNESCO) World Heritage Committee List. The UNESCO voted 14 - 1 with five abstentions here after a two - day debate which, in effect recognizes Jordan's right to take part in the international supervision of cultural and historical sites in East Jerusalem.

Those voting for Jordan's request were: Argentina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Egypt, Iraq, Cyprus, Guinea, Jordan, Libya, Nepal, Senegal, Tunisia, Zaire and Pakistan. The United States voted against the request. The five countries to abstain were Australia (which chaired the meeting), France, Italy, West Germany and Switzerland. Israel was barred from the debate because it is not among the 60 countries which signed the convention which established the list of historical and cultural sites worthy of international protection under the administration of UNESCO. The debate centered around a convention article which states: "Inclusion of a property on the World Heritage List requires consent of the state concerned." Those supporting the Jordanian claim cited another article in the convention which states: "The inclusion of a property situated in a territory, sovereignty or jurisdiction which is claimed by more than one state, shall in no way prejudice the rights of the parties to the dispute."

The U.S. delegate argued that Jordan had no right to propose East Jerusalem as a site which it should protect because Israel had de facto control of the area and therefore was the "state concerned" according to the convention article. The Jordanian delegate argued that its request was not designed to further its claims on East Jerusalem but to help protect the holy sites there. Switzerland's delegate argued that neither Jordan nor Israel was the "state - concerned" as the status of the area was undetermined. The U.S. delegate rebuked UNESCO for turning a purely cultural convention into a political tool.

ROBERT LEVINE HAS BAR MITZVAH

Robert Levine, son of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Levine, was called to the Torah to become a Bar Mitzvah during services at Temple Beth Shalom, 1600 E. Oakey Blvd., on Saturday morning September 12, 1981. Rabbi Kalman Appel, spiritual leader of the Temple officiated and conducted the services which commenced at 9:30 A.M. Cantor Simon Bergman chanted the liturgy.

The parents of the Bar Mitzvah hosted the congregation to a Kiddush in the Temple's Entratter Social Hall immediately after the conclusion of services.
