When Mike and Bea Tell went to the Sept. 17th luncheon of the Anti - Defamation League at Caesars Palace, they met with two very interesting couples. They were Arnold and May Forster, (He is the General Council for ADL), and Jerry and Ruth Belgard, (He runs all the Broadway Jewelry Departments.) Well it seems the Forsters and the Belgards were both married 41 years ago on September 29. They met on their honeymoons, and this Las Vegas trip was to celebrate their mutual anniversaries together. Mike asked Arnold Forster (the keynote speaker) for one quote that would sum up his feelings on the current situation in Israel. Forster said, "The pity of the Reagan Administration is his commitment to sell AWACS and F-15's to Saudia Arabia in that it will jeopardize the secrecy of the most sophisticated American weapons which infinitely will fall into Soviet hands. Unhappily the Saudis refused to pay the cheapest price the U.S. asked for this sale, support of the Camp David Accords."
