

"FLOWER DRUM" BANGS AT PLAZA

They say that East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet; but they're going to meet beautifully at the Union Plaza Hotel when Maynard Sloate presents the Richard Rodgers-Oscar Hammerstein classic, "Flower Drum Song." Pat Suzuki, who helped create Broadway history when she starred in the original presentation of the love story set in San Francisco's Chinatown, will recreate that magic again twice nightly in the air conditioned comfort of the Plaza show-room.

"Flower Drum Song," complete with some of the finest songs to ever come from the collaboration of Rodgers and Hammerstein, will play to an 8 p.m. dinner and an 11:45 p.m. cocktail audience.

Suzuki stars as Madam Liang, an integral part of the household of Wang Chi Yang where the customs and cultures of the American and Chinese ways of life both clash and blend. But music is, after all, the universal language and the music offered in the warm love story is superb.

Loyal fans of Rodgers and Hammerstein will find everything they could want here including "I Enjoy Being A Girl," "Don't Marry Me," "Love Look Away," "You Are Beautiful," and "A Hundred Million Miracles."

Maynard Sloate is producer of the show, with Jack Bunch as director and Linda Dancil as choreographer. Based on the love story by C.Y. Lee the stage presentation of "Flower Drum Song" was written by Hammerstein and showman Joseph Fields.

"Flower Drum Song" opens Sept. 29th to an 8 p.m. dinner and 11:45 p.m. cocktail audience. For one week only, Sept. 22 through Sept. 26, "The Mickey Finn Show" goes into evening performances re-summing their afternoon schedule on Sept. 28th.

AUTONOMY TALKS START AGAIN

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Working groups representing Israel, Egypt and the United States met in Tel Aviv to map out a three stage approach to the autonomy negotiations which were resumed in Cairo Sept. 23 on the ministerial level. Members of all three delegations stressed the desire for a fresh start.

Israel seeks an agreement on autonomy for the West Bank and Gaza Strip before it completes its withdrawal from Sinai next April. The U.S. is anxious for maximum progress toward resolving the Palestinian issue while attempting to build a stable strategic alliance in the Middle East. Egypt, meanwhile hopes to prove to the Palestinians and the rest of the Arab world that the aim of its peace treaty with Israel was not solely to regain the Sinai.

"The didactic phase is only the first rung on the ladder to become a successful administrator. In the future, I hope I can continue to learn and grow along with Valley Hospital's expansion and growth."

"In most instances, employees are afraid of outgrowing the organization; for me, the apprehension lies in trying to keep up with the dynamics of Valley Hospital Medical Center."
