

NUCLEAR ISSUE HEADS U.N. MEET

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- The 36th session of the United Nations General Assembly is expected to bring Israel under heavy fire on nuclear issues. Israel's Ambassador to the UN, Yehuda Blum told reporters.

He disclosed that more than 40 countries are presently sponsoring a resolution to discuss Israel's air attack on Iraq's nuclear capabilities and its alleged nuclear cooperation with South Africa. Blum noted that this amounts to singling Israel out inasmuch as no other country rumored to have nuclear potential has been accorded similar treatment.

Earlier, the General Assembly voted by lottery to have Ismat Kittani serve as President of the General Assembly. Kittani is Iraq's Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs. Immediately following the vote Blum issued a statement denouncing the selection of Kittani as "a measure of the regrettable decline of the United Nations standards." Blum noted that Iraq is currently involved in a war with Iran and continued to remain officially at war with Israel.

CONVENTION ENDS IN UPROAR

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Border policemen were called in to separate battling Labor and Likud members at the Histadrut convention. The uproar increased further when one of the Likud members was arrested but died down somewhat when the convention presidency persuaded the police to release him but bar him from re-entering the hall.
