

W. GERMANY PLANS ARMS DEAL

BONN (WNS) -- Sources here indicated that an apparent agreement reached between the ruling Social Democratic Party (SPC) and its junior coalition partner, the Free Democratic Party (DP), could pave the way to a massive arms deal with Saudi Arabia.

The agreement would modify restraints on arms sales by West Germany. Until now the government has declined to comment on this controversial issue.

West German policy has been to refuse to sell arms to countries at war or in areas of tension such as the Mideast. The two parties agreed to drop some of these restrictions and that arms sale should be predicated on the "vital foreign and security interests" of West Germany.
