

CHIEF PARRISH TO BE HONORED AT HILTON

Chief Roy L. Parrish of the Clark County Fire Department will accept the National Humanitarian Award on behalf of his department as Las Vegas' 1981 benefit for the National Jewish Hospital/National Asthma Center (NJH/NAC).

Nevada Governor Robert List and Las Vegas Mayor William H. Briare.

Selection of the Clark County Fire Department for this honor was announced by John T. Fitzgerald, vice president and general manager of the Las Vegas Hilton Hotel, who is serving as chairman of this year's benefit for the Denver-based medical center.

The campaign for the nonprofit and nonsectarian respiratory and immune disease center will culminate Nov. 8 with a $300-per-couple benefit dinner at the Las Vegas Hilton.

Serving as co-chairmen for the event are Henri J. Lewin, executive vice president of the Hilton Hotels Corp. and Mel Exber, president and general manager of Las Vegas Club Hotel and Casino. Honorary chairmen are
