

"FIDDLER ON THE ROOF" OPENS AT ALADDIN

"Fiddler on the Roof," one of the most popular and successful musicals of Broadway history, will open a one-week run in a production starring Herschel Bernardi and directed and choreographed by Jerome Robbins, live on the stage of the Aladdin Theatre beginning on Tuesday, October 20 and running through Sunday, October 25. Produced by Eugene V. Wolsk and James M. Nederlander, "Fiddler on the Roof" has a book from Joseph Stein, music by Jerry Bock and lyrics by Sheldon Harnick. This production of "Fiddler" marks the first time Jerome Robbins has staged the musical since the 1964 original. Herschel Bernardi has performed the role of Tevye now over 1000 times on Broadway and on tour.

Herschel Bernardi is a performer who has starred on stage, screen and television. Beginning his theatrical career off-Broadway in 1954 in "The World of Sholom Aleichem," Mr. Bernardi was a natural to assume the role of Tevye, in "Fiddler" which is based on the stories of Aleichem. Television audiences know Mr. Bernardi as the star of "Peter Gunn," "Arnie" and movies such as "Irma La Douce" and "Love With a Proper Stranger." He has appeared on Broadway in "Death of a Salesman," "Bajour," "A Thousand Clowns" and "Last of the Red Hot Lovers." Television audiences will currently recognize Mr. Bernardi's voice as that of the Jolly Green Giant and Charlie Tuna on commercials.

Jerome Robbins is one of the biggest talents ever to work in the theatre, counting triumphs such as "West Side Story," "Gypsy," "Bells Are Ringing" and "Peter Pan." One of the leading ballet choreographers of all time, Mr. Robbins choreographed over 30 new ballets as a ballet master of the world famous New York City Ballet. Co-starring with Herschel Bernardi in the role of his wife, Golde, is Chevi Colton, last seen on Broadway with Joel Grey in "The Grand Tour" and Paul Lipson, as Lazar Wolf and a stand-by for the role of Tevye. "Fiddler on the Roof" opened with a fairly slow start in Detroit in 1964, and from there roared into New York to win 9 Tony Awards and set records for attendance. Running for 3,242 performances, it became the second longest running show in Broadway history (surpassing "Life With Father" and eventually being overtaken by "Grease."). "Fiddler" has been performed around the world in over 75 countries and has been recorded on over 50 foreign language albums. "If you were a rich man, you couldn't buy a better show than this joyous recreation," said the New York Times of "Fiddler on the Roof" now touring the nation. The Los Angeles Times calls it "well cast, good-looking production.... Bernardi's Tevye is restrained and quietly funny," and "a bold, yet meticulous production" (Hollywood Reporter). "Bernardi's performance remains one of the great ones on the American musical stage." (Philadelphia Inquirer). According to Herschel Bernardi, "if you miss this production of 'Fiddler On The Roof' you will never forgive yourself!"

Tickets are now on sale at the Aladdin Theatre box office and all Wagon Master clothing stores. For ticket information, call 736-1738.

ISRAEL VOTES AGAINST AWACS

WASH. (WNS) -- The House Foreign Affairs Committee voted 28-8 to adopt a resolution disapproving the Reagan Administration's proposed sale of AWACS radar planes and other military equipment to Saudi Arabia. The resolution will now go to the full House for a vote. Meanwhile, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which was due to vote on a similar resolution postponed action after the death of President Anwar Sadat.

Earlier in the week Secretary of State Alexander Haig warned the members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that they are suffering from an "illusion" if they believe that a U.S. - Saudi Arabian joint command arrangement could be worked out in the AWACS proposal. Haig added that the Administration would not go back to negotiations with the Saudis because the package has already been completed. He regarded that as "counterproductive" and "imprudent."
