"FLOWER DRUM" IS AN SO GOOD

The sound of music is again filling the main showroom of the Union Plaza Hotel, where Maynard Sloate is presenting another classic by Rodgers & Hammerstein, "Flower Drum Song."

Pat Suzuki, who became the darling of the critics when she starred in the original Broadway presentation of "Flower Drum Song," is back again to win a whole new generation of fans for the show that plays twice nightly at the Union Plaza. Diners can catch the 8 p.m. show, while night owls can enjoy the midnight presentation of the beautiful Oriental love story.

Musicals have always been popular and musicals with words and music by Rodgers and Hammerstein have always been at the top of the list. Showgoers at the Plaza will know why as they hear the refrains of "You Are Beautiful," "A Hundred Million Miracles," "I Enjoy Being A Girl," "I Am Going to Like It Here," "Like A God," "Chop Suey," "Don't Marry Me," and "Sunday."

"WHOREHOUSE" WOWS AUDIENCE AT DI

"The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," the rip-roaring, raucous musical that pokes fun at modern social morality, is delighting audiences at the Desert Inn and Country Club.

The Tony - Award-winning show is loosely based on events surrounding the closing of the oldest continually operating bordello in the Lone Star State and stars June Terry as the madame and William Larsen as the sheriff.

Blues singer Jackie Teamer plays the housekeeper, and the television crusader is portrayed by Kevin Cooney. In addition, audiences are treated to an exceptional cast of bigger - than - life Texas characters who provide just about as much fun and entertainment possible on any stage.

Desert Inn showtimes are 8 p.m. and midnight, except Mondays. Call 733-4566 for reservations.
