

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

AMSTERDAM (WNS) -- The municipal executive of Eindhoven has refused to withdraw its commission to a Dutch former Nazi collaborator to compose a musical tribute to the town on the occasion of its 750th anniversary. The composer, Henk Badings, 74, was branded a Nazi collaborator by a Dutch de-Nazification court after World War II and his works were banned in The Netherlands for ten years. During the war, he composed an anthem for the Dutch Nazi Party.

PARIS (WNS) -- Jewish leaders from 11 West European countries here called for a joint world petition to be underwritten by millions of private citizens and as many governments as possible on behalf of Soviet Jewry. Over 150 West European Jewish leaders, who ended a two day meeting to examine new developments in the Soviet Union, concluded that "never has (Soviet Jewry's situation) been as tragic as today. Exit visas are granted by the dozens while hundreds of thousands of Soviet Jews are asking for the right to leave."

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- The Special Political Committee of the U.N. General Assembly demanded that Israel desist from further archaeological excavations in Jerusalem which are illegally transforming and endangering the historical, cultural and religious sites of the city. A resolution to that effect was adopted by a vote of 101 - 2 with 23 abstentions. Israel and the U.S. voted against the measure. Thirty other countries did not participate. The resolution must be endorsed by the General Assembly plenary to become effective.

TAMPA, FLA. (WNS) -- Jurgis Juodis, a 70-year-old Lithuanian - born naturalized citizen, has gone on trial in Federal District Court here on charges that he lied about his Nazi activities during World War II when he applied for entry into the United States 32 years ago, it was reported. He would face deportation if convicted. U.S. Attorney General Gary Betz said he filed a six count complaint against Juodis, an artist who lives in St. Petersburg Beach. He is accused of having been a member of the Nazi-sponsored Lithuanian police which collaborated in the killing of Jews and others.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir said that Israel would never negotiate with the Palestine Liberation Organization even if the PLO recognizes Israel's right to exist. He told the Knesset Foreign Affairs and Security Committee that there was no reason for Israel to change its policy. Shamir's remark was seen as an indirect response to President Reagan's recent comment that the U.S. would negotiate with the PLO if it recognized Israel's right to exist.

I REALLY WISH I KNEW WHY PEOPLE HAVE FUNERALS

Students of human behavior tell us that ceremonies for saying goodby have existed as long as man. Ceremonies mark events in the lives of people and communities. Weddings mark new families; baptisms and bar mitzvahs welcome children and adolescents into society. Death marks the end of life. The funeral acknowledges that a life has been lived. People express their feelings about life through ceremony. Funerals also provide a socially accepted way for people to come together to support the grieving family. Many people welcome social support. If there were no funerals, how would you find a way to tell a family that you cared about their loss.
