picana, RONNIE GREENBLATT DANCE CO and LUISA TRIANA -- other than her own dance satire "Games People Play" and a new choreo to MIKE OLDFIELD'S "Tubular Bells" -- Being a member of the press, will have a pre-view of the Imperial Palace auto collection on Nov. 30. By that time I'll be chewing up the scenery in "A Christmas Carol" at Meadows Playhouse, the musical version by PHILIP MCKINLEY and SUZANNE BUHRER, directed by JUDITH BRENNER & JOAN SNYDER. It opens Nov. 27 and you're all welcome to boo and cheer EBENEZER SCROOGE as performed by the fine actor BILL DAMERON from Tucson.

ROGER LOWE GRABS HIS AUDIENCES

ROGER LOWE AKA SAMMY FONG IN THE UNION PLAZA'S PRODUCTION OF "FLOWER DRUM SONG" THRU NOVEMBER 29, IS GRABBING THE HEARTS OF HIS AUDIENCE EACH NIGHT AT 8 P.M. AND 11:45 P.M. THE TWO NUMBERS THAT LOWE DOES IN THE ROLE WHICH ESPECIALLY CAPTURES THE CROWD AND CAUSES A PANDEMONIUM OF EXCITEMENT IS WHEN HE SINGS AND DANCES WITH MEI LI ON "DON'T MARRY ME" AND ON "SUNDAY" WITH LINDA LOW.

One of Richard Rodgers' and Oscar Hammerstein's most popular songs, from the Pulitzer Prize winning production of "South Pacific" was "There Is Nothing Like A Dame."

But there is nothing like their music either -- as audiences are happily discovering in the showroom of the Union Plaza Hotel where Pat Suzuki stars in "Flower Drum Song."

East meets West beautifully in this story of love and change within a household set in San Francisco's Chinatown and Suzuki brings it to life at 8 and 11:45 p.m. nightly in the showroom of the downtown resort.

Songs that can be heard floating out of the Union Plaza showroom include "You Are Beautiful," "A Hundred Million Miracles," "I Enjoy Being a Girl," "Chop Suey," "Love Look Away" and "Fan Tan Fannie."

They're the same songs Suzuki was singing when she originally starred in "Flower Drum Song" during its initial Broadway success. Now she's back, switching roles from that of Linda Low to Madam Liang and earning new fans all over again.

Maynard Sloate is producer of "Flower Drum Song," with Jack Bunch as director and Linda Dangleil as choreographer.

SAHARA ROLLS BACK PRICES

The Sahara Hotel and Casino is celebrating a spectacular new look and 30 years of the best in fun and excitement with a "Let the Good Times Roll" spectacular celebration now through December 28.

Workmen are now completing the most dramatic and dazzling facelift at the Sahara since the world-famous Strip resort opened its doors in 1952 as the "Gem of the Desert."

To celebrate its 30th year and new look, the Sahara is featuring fantastic "rollbacks" in food and beverage prices and great daily giveaways.

Five times daily, Sunday through Friday, drawings are held in the casino for $100 in cash. On Fridays at 10 p.m. the Sahara is giving away 50 ounces of silver bullion mined and smelted in Nevada and presented in an elegant solid walnut display case made by the Sahara's carpentry shop.

The Grand Prize for the "Let the Good Times Roll" celebration is a classic, award-winning 1957 Chevrolet automobile, completely restored with authentic 1957 parts and fittings. The car, valued at upwards of $15,000.00, has only about 330 actual miles on it. Throughout the celebration the Sahara is also offering some of the most spectacular food and beverage specials in the history of Las Vegas.

Now, Sahara patrons can enjoy a complete gourmet dinner in either the House of Lords gourmet steak house or the Villa Italia specialty Italian restaurant for only $10.99, plus tax and gratuity. The House of Lords dinner is a complete Porterhouse steak dinner with salad, potato, vegetable and dessert. In the Villa, the special dinner will feature veal, beef, lamb and Italian sausage combination plate with vegetables and dessert, at the same price.

The Sahara has also rolled back prices on its quality buffets, long among the most popular in Las Vegas. Breakfast buffets during the "Let the Good Times Roll" celebration will be $2.79, lunch $3.29 and dinner $3.99, all plus tax.

Beverage and gaming prices also have been rolled back to "good old days" levels. Call brand drinks and bottled beer at the casino bars will be only $1. During special happy hours, drinks will be two for the price of one. Happy hours are daily at 12 noon to 1 p.m., 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. and 2 a.m. to 6 a.m.

To give a real flavor of the early days of Las Vegas, the Sahara's casino will also feature Penny slots, 10-cent roulette, 25-cent craps, 50-cent keno, $1 blackjack, and real silver dollar paying slots.

SINATRA HEADS SCOPUS AWARD

Frank Sinatra and Milton A. Rudin will serve as general chairmen of the 12th annual Scopus Award Gala of the American Friends of the Hebrew University in tribute to Nancy Reagan Sunday evening, November 15, at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

This is the third consecutive year that Rudin, president of the Western States Region of the American Friends, has chaired the Scopus dinner. He is an Honorary Fellow of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and a member of its Society of the Founders. He is a member of the law firm of Rudin, Perlstein and Chieffo.

For Sinatra the Nancy Reagan evening marks the seventh year in which he has been associated with the Scopus Awards. He presented the award, highest honor that the Friends can bestow, on maestro Artur Rubinstein in 1975, on John Wayne and Nobel Laureates Milton Friedman and Dr. Baruch S. Blumberg in 1977, on Gregory Peck and Dinah Shore in 1978, and on Harvey L. Silbert in 1979. He received the Scopus Award in 1976. He was co-chairman of the 1980 fete honoring maestros Zubin Mehta and Mehli Mehta.

The Frank Sinatra International Student Center on Mount Scopus, focal point for the 3,000 overseas students who come from more than 50 nations each year to take part in the Hebrew University's special programs, bears his name.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Over 80,000 people crowded into Tel Aviv's main Malchei Yisrael Square outside the municipality building to attend an evening memorial meeting and peace song festival in memory of the late Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. The meeting was arranged by Abie Nathan, owner and operator of the pirate Voice of Peace floating radio station, and the square was renamed "Sadat Square."
