

"WHOREHOUSE" GETS GREEN LIGHT AT DESERT INN

Y'ALL COME BACK NOW, YA' HEAR -- JUNE TERRY, AS MISS MONA (CENTER), AND HER GIRLS INVITE MUSICAL COMEDY LOVERS TO VISIT "THE BEST LITTLE WHOREHOUSE IN TEXAS," THE BROADWAY SENSATION NOW ON STAGE AT THE DESERT INN AND COUNTRY CLUB.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- A committee of experts believes evidence that the drug diethyl stilboestol (DES) can cause cancer is inconclusive and recommended that the Health Ministry not conduct massive checks among young women whose mothers were given the synthetic hormone 20 or 30 years ago to help them carry out their pregnancies. Accordingly, Health Minister Eliezer Shostak rejected a Knesset member's request that nationwide health checks be initiated.

LITTLE, REYNOLDS CO-HEADLINE MGM

Rich Little, the master of mimicry, and show business favorite Debbie Reynolds, return to the MGM Grand Hotel's Celebrity Room for a three week engagement.

Rich Little's unequalled impressions of personalities ranging from Johnny Carson to President Ronald Reagan, have made him one of the most talented and popular performers on the international entertainment scene.

Little's carbons of Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas, Richard Nixon and many others are well known and helped establish the master mimic as the premiere human Zerox machine. Sustaining his position at the top of his art, however, is the result of his uncanny ability to update his material and repertoire seemingly overnight and deliver contemporary material to his vast audiences. In his most recent appearance at the MGM Grand, for instance, Rich's Reagan had replaced Jimmy Carter; Walter Cronkite had given way to Ted Koppel of ABC TC's "Nightline."

Returning with Little in a re-run of their highly successful August Grand-stand, Debbie Reynolds is another testimonial to the adage that talent will sustain success. Miss Reynolds, the first (and only) of the glittering MGM stars to play that famous studio's Grand offspring, has been a Las Vegas headliner and main-stay for a number of years.

The Little/Reynolds melding will center-stage the Grand's Celebrity Room through November 18th, when Dean Martin will take over the spotlight for a week.
