

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

LONDON (WNS) -- The Israel Bond Organization is more than half way toward raising the initial "seed" money for the Mediterranean-Dead Sea canal which will provide water from the Mediterranean for a hydro - electric power station on the Dead Sea. Bond organization officials reported Dec. 20 that they had raised $40 million towards the $110 million which the Israel government wants to use to launch the $1 billion project.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The David Yellin Teachers College in Jerusalem recently hosted a series of meetings and receptions with Senator Canon Sipheste Dlamani of Swaziland and with that country's director of the Ministry of Education, Salomon Simelane. It was reported here by a Friend of the David Yellin Teachers Foundation. Swaziland was one of the few Black African countries that did not break diplomatic relations with Israel after the Yom Kippur war.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The State Department announced that the visit by Saudi Arabian Prince Fahd to the U.S. scheduled for February 19 has been postponed at Fahd's request and will be rescheduled "at an early mutually agreed upon time". A Department spokesman said the decision to postpone the visit was taken "in light of the current developments in the Middle East in particular and in the world in general."

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A four day strike by Golan Druze protesting the imposition of Israeli law on the area, ended, but the atmosphere in the four villages in which the nearly 13,000 Golan Druze are concentrated remains tense. Religious leaders have imposed sanctions against the minority of Druze who support the Israeli move.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Defense Ministry announced that the Swiss army intends to buy from Israel engines and cannons for the 300 Centurion tanks the army bought from England. Apparently the tanks did not function properly and the British manufacturing firm could not rectify the problem. The entire arms deal is expected to net Israel 600 million in Swiss Francs.
