VINTON, RIVERS STAR AT MGM

Bobby Vinton, one of the most popular entertainers in the world, who has sold over 30 - million records, and Joan Rivers, the world's reigning queen of comedy will open in the MGM Grand Hotel's Celebrity Room for a one week engagement.

Vinton, the well-known teenage idol and entertainer of the 1960s has risen to the heights of superstardom in the '70s and 80's to become one of the most successful, sought after entertainers of our time. Since the release of his number one hit record, "My Melody of Love," his career has taken on a new dimension, elevating him to the position of international performer and recording star.

If Woody Allen had a female counterpart, she would be Joan Rivers. Joan exudes not only warmth and friendliness, but also a truthfulness that makes her audience know she's a friend.

Joan not only creates and writes all of her own material, but performs it as well like no other comedienne of our time.

Bobby Vinton and Joan Rivers will appear twice nightly at 8:00 p.m. and 12-midnight in the Celebrity Room at the MGM Grand Hotel through January 20th.
