SAHARA'S "WEST" SHOW IS A BARGAIN

It's the fun show of the year and a bargain, too, as the Sahara Hotel presents "The West Was Never Wilder!" in two big cocktail shows nightly at 8 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. for only $5.95 per person, plus tax and gratuity, one cocktail included, weeknights and $7.95 on Saturdays.

From the opening "In the Wild, Wild West" number to the rousing hoe-down, this hit Country-Western musical-comedy revue is kept fast-paced and lively by stars Kirby St. Romain, Linda Lobo, Terry Richards, the fabulous Sahara Girls and Boys featuring the Marquer Twins, and the Jack Eglash Orchestra.

Kirby St. Romain is the comedian for the show and this Congo Showroom engagement has marked him as a fast-rising comedy star on the Las Vegas scene.

Kirby is more than just a comedian, a fact that contributes heavily to increasing popularity and rapid climb up the show business ladder. Kirby majored in television arts in college with an eye toward being behind the camera rather than being the focus of entertainment. His technical knowledge, he admits, has enhanced his actual performing.

Also keeping continuity as well as fast pacing are the fabulous Sahara Girls and Boys. They romp through numerous complete costume changes as they go from one rousing musical and dancing number to the next.

Call 735 - 4242 for Congo Showroom reservations and enjoy the best of the West, "The West Was Never Wilder!" nightly except Monday in the Congo Showroom of Del Webb's Sahara Hotel.
