volunteers dialed their friends and neighbors in 82 communities, and our preliminary figures show a total of $13,124,817 in gifts," UJA National Chairman Herschel W. Blumberg and Super Sunday National Chairman Jerome J. Dick said in a joint statement.

"With at least 45 other communities holding similar events in coming weeks as campaigns open locally," the statement continued, "we expect that final returns will far exceed last year's achievement."

The 1982 opening day total of $13.1 million represented an increase of almost $1.5 million over the amount raised on the initial day in 1981.

to have some of the villagers bring baskets of fruit to some alleged Arab patients. The British had been instructed to treat Arabs kindly. As they passed Geulah's room they started a quarrel. In the commotion, one of the Arab women slipped a basket into Geulah's room. In a few moments, Geulah, garbed as an Arab woman, was in the crowd of Arabs who were bundled out of the hospital. That was the last the British saw of Geulah.

Yes, the day of 'judgment' for Sinai approaches and the voice of Geulah Cohen must be reckoned with.

BLAST L.A. POLICE CHIEF

LOS ANGELES (WNS) -- President of the Los Angeles Police Commission, Reva Tolley, sharply rebuked Police Chief Daryle Gages for releasing a report suggesting that the Soviet Union is sending criminals into the Los Angeles area, posing as Russian Jewish emigres with the intention to increase crime and disrupt the 1984 Olympic games. Tooley said that on the basis of a briefing by Assistant Police Chief Marvin Iannone, she found "no basis for such speculation" and accused Gages of "unnecessarily whipping up fear." Los Angeles Time staff writers Kenneth Reich and Joel Sappel reported.

Gages gave the pamphlet which stirred the rebuke to a group of media and business executives at a briefing last month. The police chief subsequently acknowledged that the allegations were "speculations" and "suppositions" but maintained that "worst cases" scenarios had to be anticipated. The report by Gages' detectives contained a section titled, "Soviet Emigre Mafia," which claimed that about 20 emigres have been involved in "murder, theft, fraud, forgery, counterfeiting, extortion, receiving stolen property and various vice activities." It added: "It is readily foreseeable that the crime problem involving Soviets will increase in size and severity as the Soviet emigrant population increases."

The Soviet Jewish emigre community here has also demanded that Gages apologize to the Jewish community for releasing the 42-page pamphlet prepared by his detectives. Si Frumkin, chairman of the Southern California Council for Soviet Jews, observed that Soviet Jewish emigrants here are "a well adjusted community of good Americans who do not cooperate with the KGB."

CRITICAL OF BEGIN POLICIES

PARIS (WNS) -- Dutch Socialist Piet Dankert, the newly elected President of the European Parliament, is described in Strasbourg as a friend of Israel but critical of some aspects of Premier Menachem Begin's policies. Dankert, 48, was elected by 191 votes to 175 to West German Christian Democrat Egon Klep-sch, succeeding Simon Veil to the presidency of the 10 member state legislative body.

Dankert, a veteran member of the Socialist International has visited Israel on several occasions and is on good personal terms with Israel's Labor Party chairman Shimon Peres and other Labor Party leaders. Though he is generally supportive of Israel at most international forums, which he attends, sources in Strasbourg said he has condemned several Israeli decisions and is known to favor the inclusion of the Palestinians in the Mideast peace talks.
