Dear Editor:
For the past 15 years I have conducted research and writing in the field of religion in the United States. I have been in touch with religious leaders of many different denominations, including Hillel directors, from Massachusetts to California. For most of this period I have been teaching at the University of Nevada, Reno, and I have recently decided to re-direct my research to Judaism in Nevada. Public archival sources have revealed only the barest threads of Jewish history in Nevada.

If any of your readers can assist me in supplying information on the history of Jewish people in Nevada, I would appreciate hearing from them.

Sincerely,
John P. Marschall
Associate Professor of History, University of Nevada-Reno

WOMEN'S PLEA FOR SOVIET JEWRY

All of the Jewish Women's organizations in Las Vegas together with the National Conference of Christians and Jews are coordinating efforts to make the annual Women's Plea for Soviet Jewry an outstanding success. This event is to call attention not only to the plight of Soviet Jews, but also to the plight of all people in the Soviet Union who are subject to persecution, and their numbers are legion. This inter-religious function will take place in the UNLV Moyer Student Building Ballroom on Sunday afternoon, April 25th, at 2 P.M.

Aleksandr Slepak, son of Soviet Prisoners of Conscience Vladimir and Maria Slepak, and himself a refusnik, will be keynote speaker. Featured also will be Dr. Donald W. McEvoy, Senior Vice President and director of Program Development for the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He has met recently with the Soviet Pentacostals, who for the past three years have shared a tiny room in the basement of the American Embassy in Moscow.

This is a matter of great concern to all Americans, and we urge every one in the community to attend this truly ecumenical event.
